THE BOARD OF CONTROL of the Confederate idows' Home gratefully acknowledge the re-cipt of the following donations: $100 from Mrs. C. Baker, of Baltimore; $100 from Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Warfield and Miss M. Baker, of Baltimore one kit of mackerel and one barrel of Irish pota toes, from Mr. W. Roach; one barrel of potatoes, from Mr. T. Gaillard, of Darlington, and five barrels of molasses, from "a friend of the cause."

A RADICAL TIME-KEEPER .- To the astonish ent of all good citizens who were accustomed to regulate their watches by the town clock, that venerable moultor yesterday was stationary. Hour after hour passed, and the hands still marked half-past ten. Housekeepers were dis-corported, dinners were jeopardized, and the community would have been demoralized if the error had not been discovered in time to keep the pot boiling.

REMOVAL OF THE OFFICE OF THE EXPRESS COMPANY.—The fine building recently erected in Hasel street, west of the Pavilion Hotel, will soon be occupied by the Southern Express Company Charleston Hotel. The new building is somewha smaller in area, but the company will occupy both stories. Before the removal it is stated that a large number of unclaimed packages of various purchasers to bid blindly, or, as an intelligent darkey remarked, "to tek 'em on trus if he doe

A RARE ATTRACTION .- Seldom have the of Charleston had an opportunity of feast ing their eyes upon so attractive a collection of paintings as those which are to be sold on Thurs day by Messrs. Leitch & Bruns, at the southeas corner of Broad and Church streets. While the very few that are not far above the average of paintings that one sees now-a-days. The collection will be opened for the inspection of the publi this morning, and the ladies particularly are invited to call and examine the landscapes and other subjects that are to be offered for sale.

PRIZES FOR THE STATE FAIR .- The mana gers of the State Agricultural Fair have purchased from the establishment of Messrs. W. C. Whilden & Co. a variety of articles of silver-ware designed as prizes for the successful competitors in the various departments. The prizes are all of solid ing in the aggregate over $4000. Mesars, Whilden & Co. also furnished the prizes for the late Abbe ville Fair. The following , the list of the articles: Pocket fruit knives, with nut picks, servittle rings pickle forks, with blades, mustard spoons, sait spoons, knitting needles, nut picks, sugar spoons. biscuit forks, butter knives, dessert forks, jelly spoons, dessert spoons, gravy ladles, gilt bowl, preserve spoons, pickle knives and forks, cheese gouge, cream ladles, salt stands, berry spoons, sugar sifters, card cases, wine cup, lined with gold, potato forks, rice spoons, silver-bound milk pail, pie knife, porte-monnale, gilt bowl, oyster ladies, gold lined cups, gold lined gobiets, gold lined soup ladies, all of the above of silver; bridies, halters, bits, stirrups and spurs. Certificate of medals awarded.

FAREWELL TO BISHOP LYNCH .- PARTIRO TESday evening, the vestrymen of the several Catho lic Churches and a number of the personal friends of Bishop Lynch met at his residence, in Broad street, to bid him farewell before his departure to attend the (Reumenical Council at Ros pleasing interchange of greetings, M. P. O'Con nor, Esq., on behalf of those present, presented the Bishop with a handsome purse, the donation of some of the members of his diocese, and a tes timonial of their regard and good wishes. O'Connor alluded to the desolation that overspread the diocese at the close of the war, and showed that through the arduous labors of the Bishop much of the ruin of the past had already been repaired. In bidding adicu upon this occa-sion, the pleasing duty was devolved upon him to present a testimonial which was the free-will offering of the people of the diocese.

The Bishop feelingly responded, thanking them for their gift. Though his labors had been arduous, he had but followed the example of the Apostle Paul and the Bishops of old, and his appeal for aid had been answerd. Some good had been done, but more remained to do. He only trusted that his health would be equal to the task. He went to Rome at the call of the Sovereign Pontiff of the Hierarchy, and impelled by his vow. Some repose was also necessary after the labors of the past/few years, and he hoped to return to his diocese in April or May in renewed health and vigor. The Bishop thanked his guests again for the testimonial, and pronounced the benediction after which he bid them severally adieu, expressing the hope of a speedy reunion.

CRUMBS .- The fines imposed by the Mayor

resterday morning amounted to $25.

A meeting of the Survivors' Association will be held this evening to make arrangements for the convention which will assemble in this city on the 18th instant. A full attendance of the member: s requested.

Alderman T. J. Mackey in the Court of General Sessions, for assault and battery with intent to kill, has only been temporarily withdrawn, and will be returned with some amendments. Well-authenticated ice was formed in the upp

THE SOUTH CAROLINA COLORED CONSERVA FIVE CLUB.—A meeting of this organization was held last evening at Oppenheim's Hall, corner of King and Hudson streets. It was largely attended by the better class of colored citizens, and severa addresses were made urging co-operation in the movement, and showing the evil results of Radi resolutions were unanimously adopted:

resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas. The undersigned colored men of charleston being now convinced of the corruption, extravagance and inefficiency of the present rulers of this Siate and eity, and having discovered that under the disguise of doing good to the colored people, strangers have come here only to advance their own personal interest, but having really no affection for nor co-interest with us, and that many native Carolinians have joined them only for the purpose of obtaining a share of the spoils; and being convinced that the great naturneredented in saiton, and other had revernspoils; and being convinced that the great man unprecedented taxation, and other bad govern-ment under which we are now suffering, are the results of these men obtaining offices; and being convinced that our true and only friends are to be found among the intelligent native gentlemen of this State, whom we have known all our lives and have never found them wanting when needed nor in time of trouble; and being convinced that our interests are identical with theirs, and that their prosperity is also ours; and being convinced that interests are identical with theirs, and that their prosperity is also ours; and being convinced that to them alone we have to look for a reorganization of our State and eity governments, upon the bases of honesty and efficiency; and being fully satisfied that we will receive every justice at their hands, therefore, be it Resolved. That we organize ourselves into a society, not to any party whatever owing any altegiance, but for the only object of freeing our State and city from its present corrupt rulers and placing honest and capable men in their places.

Resolved. That we do pledge ourselves never to vote for any incompetent candidate, be he Republican or Democrat, for any office whatever, but to use all our influence to defeat all such candidates and elevating to office only our own mattive and honest citizens and such others as our own gen.
